

Katie: kwalters.hosanna@comcast.net

Susan: srdistefano@comcast.net

Above: Chillin like Villains Fall Festival. Middle: Girls go out to lunch at the Mall. Below: work begins on a picnic pavilion.

This Week's Activities:

It's a quiet week...

Tuesday, 10/25: YMCA program, 12:30. Stuart Heights brings dinner to Faith House.

Thursday, 10/27: YMCA program, 12:30

Today's issue is to help readers avoid the high cost of professional advice in obtaining happiness involving others and relationships. Through a host of personal experiences and readings, I have discovered you will build and maintain positive friendships when you do the following:

1. Respect the dignity of every person;
2. Have an attitude of care and concern for others;
3. Combine good listening habits with observation habits;
4. When recognizing strengths, encourage the use of them;
5. Keep a sense of humor and ability to laugh at one's self;
6. Build an ability to take criticism;
7. Let others work out their plans without imposing yours;
8. Say, "I don't know, but I'll try to find out for you.";
9. Give praise whenever appropriate;
10. Remain dependable by keeping one's promises;
11. Show an ability to offer alternatives and choices;
12. Most importantly, have patience!

Follow these suggestions, and you will discover happiness, thus avoiding the need to seek professional advice!

ECR

Please note: The folks from the fire protection company will be checking the system on Monday morning. Be aware that someone will be coming in briefly to each bedroom to be sure the alarms are in proper working order.