

The Hosanna Community News

November 16, 2015

Vol.6, Issue 1

Katie: kwalters.hosanna@comcast.net

Susan: srdistefano@comcast.net

Above right: Residents in their Halloween finery get ready to go to a party at the Barn a few weeks ago. We had a pirate, a jester, a scary guy in a hockey mask, a witch, a couple of Hawaiian dancers, and more. Above left, Orlando shows off some hip action as he goes on to win the hula hoop contest, while below left, Susan has fun in a photo op at the Draggin' for Toys event sponsored by the Brainerd Optimists at their drag strip in East Ridge.

Upcoming activities

Tues., Nov. 17. CABIA Thankful Dinner at Siskin Hospital. We'll leave at 5:30.

Thurs., Nov. 19. get creative with Stacy and help make Christmas decorations. Hope House, 1:00.

Fri., Nov. 20. North River Civic Center brings in the Chattanooga Clarinet Choir for a performance at 7:00. We'll leave after dinner at 6:30

Sat., Nov. 21. St. Alban's Men's Group work day begins at 9:00 am. Also, Walmart trip after lunch.

Right: Board members Carolyn Rice and Judy Barker (back) with Terry Owen, Linda Crane, and her mother, Carol Green at the National Philanthropy Day Luncheon, where Hosanna honored Mrs. Green for her years of support. From new furniture, to art classes, to musical programs, exercise classes, and more, Mrs. Green helps enrich the lives of all our residents! THANK YOU!!

