

The Hosanna Community News

November 23, 2015

Vol.6, Issue 2

Katie: kwalters.hosanna@comcast.net Susan: srdistefano@comcast.net

Upcoming activities

This week will be a slow one, and the office will be closed on both Thursday and Friday as well.

Thursday, Nov. 26, Thanksgiving dinner at Faith at 5:00

Saturday, Nov. 28, Tree-trimming party after dinner at both houses. Your house managers will be busy all day decorating the houses, so feel free to help out. Then gather after dinner to trim the tree.

DECEMBER DATES:

Take advantage of the down time this week, because December is just around the corner, and that means the calendar will be filled with lots of activities. Check it out and see what appeals to you. Pay attention to your body and don't get overtired by trying to do everything. Remember to eat well (not too many sweets!!) and get plenty of rest. Here are just a few of our planned activities to put on your calendar:

Dec. 2, Red Bank Christmas Parade, 6:00

Dec. 3, Annual Hosanna Board Party, Hope House, 6:00

Dec. 9, Chillin Like Villains pot luck at Coolidge Park, 6:00

Dec. 10, Comedy Catch, dinner and a show, 6:00. Jake Gullidge returns for another show of music & laughs.

Dec. 16, Dream Night Lights at the Zoo, 6:00

Left and below: Terry, Orlando, Ian, Connor and Michael enjoy the bluegrass and ice cream at Dairy Queen.

Above: It was "Hosanna Day" at St. Thaddaeus recently. Connor Roberts did the sermon, Susan Evans read one of the lessons, and the whole group enjoyed a reception afterwards. The congregation had a paper drive, resulting in the replenishment of our toilet paper and paper towel stock! Our thanks to Rev. David Hackett and the parishioners of St. Thaddaeus for their faithful support of our ministry.

