Today's issue is a personal admission: Yes, Katie Walters, we do miss you! Admittedly you've gained needed time for a family visit with your continued care and love for us all at Hosanna Community. I feel safe in offering thanks from everyone for your heartfelt determination in helping us live a healthier, more balanced life with a positive purpose. We understand your duties and responsibilities are many, and we want you to realize your encouraging nature is truly appreciated. We cannot fail to mention the absolute admiration we hold for your wonderfully loving and supportive husband, Ellis. We thank God for your eternal bond and his care for us. ECR

²²But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law. Galatians 5:22-23

It's my prayer that we're all able to overcome our daily challenges. The characteristics listed above are always a possibility for being real in each of our lives every day!

I want to come alongside as a real friend who cares and listens to you with quietness & understanding. The main thing most of us want is to be heard and listened to. And even though I'm in my room most of the time, I always have time to listen.

So let's all keep on keeping on, as best as we can facing each day with resolve, and try to remember that we're all in this to succeed!

(The great thing about these verses is that they apply to everything in life, no matter what.)

⁷casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you. 1Peter 5:7
