Pepsilo

Residents enjoyed an impromptu trip to the Chickamauga Dam on a beautiful day recently. And what's a trip to the park without the obligatory stop at the ice cream store??

Below left, residents have a joint meal in our new picnic pavilion to celebrate Sarah Gussow's birthday. Afterwards, we had a bonfire, complete with roasted marshmallows and s'mores! Many thanks to the Sherman Hsu Family Foundation and St. Thaddaeus Episcopal Church for the funding to build this structure. In time, we will do some planting around the pavilion (keep us in mind the next time you are dividing your daffodils!) and we look forward to many more such gatherings.

It's springtime, which means it's time to get out of the house and into the yard! Above, Sherolyn plants some bulbs, while below. Terry soaks up some warmth on one of the benches donated by board members. With the addition of the St. Francis Memorial Garden, the benches (one of which been has placed in the woods along the walking path), and the pavilion, we have noticed that residents spending more time outside, both alone and with other residents.

This week's activities:

Tuesday, March 21, CABIA monthly support group meets at the Creative Discovery Museum for a special program and chance to tour the museum. Pizza provided. We'll leave at 5:30. For those who stay home, dinner will be served at Hope House at 6:00.

Tuesday, March 21, HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO MICHAEL!!

Thursday, March 23, weather permitting, we'll head to a nearby park at 1:00.

Anticipating April

Changes will occur creating a beautiful sight; The blossoming colors of peach, pink, and white.

Valleys hold ongoing beauties truly hard to believe As God sends more love for us all to receive.

April's arrival provides proof HIS love is sincere With reborn life always sent this time of year.

Consider this positive, truth-telling thought: In God's beautiful creation HIS love is brought.
