Upcoming activities

Tuesday, March 8, Movie - CRASH REEL - and popcorn at Faith House at 6:45. See the dramatic true story of professional snowboarder Kevin Pearce who suffered a traumatic brain injury while training for the 2010 Winter Olympics. His family is very supportive as he struggles through rehab, but raises objections when he wants to return to competition.

Wednesday, March 9, Faith House restaurant road trip to City Café!

Thursday, March 10, Weather permitting, we're taking a field trip to Coolidge Park downtown. We can ride the carousel and take a walk around the park or across the river.

Friday, March 11, It's back to the North River Civic Center for line dancing from 10:00-11:00.

There was an old owl
Who sat on an oak.

The more he saw,
The less he spoke.
The less he spoke,
The more he heard.

Why aren't WE
Like that wise old bird?

Pizza Party and survivor stories were on tap at last month's CABIA support group meeting. This month, we'll hear from family members and caregivers of folks who have suffered brain injuries. It's an opportunity to hear the stories from a different perspective.

Who doesn't like a Blizzard every now and then? Residents enjoy great music AND a refreshing beverage at Dairy Queen recently.

SARAH GUSSOW has a birthday on March 9. To celebrate, Faith House is going out to eat at the City Café.
