

The Hosanna Community News

June 22, 2015

Vol.5, Issue 32

Katie: kwalters.hosanna@comcast.net

Susan: srdistefano@comcast.net

Residents got their hands dirty planting colorful flowers in even more colorful cans. Then, Susan, Faye & Nan hung them on the light pole up by Hope House. The bright colors add a wonderfully cheerful note to the property!

HAVE YOU SEEN THE GARDEN??

The peas are done and the lettuce looked beautiful, but with age was getting bitter, so we pulled it out. The zucchini and yellow squash have started to come in, and we pulled some beautiful beets. We could use some help with weeding—Come on, lend a hand!!!

Picnic and swimming at Chester Frost Park! What a great day...maybe next time, more folks will venture into the water!!

Upcoming activities:

Monday, June 22, house meeting for everyone!! 7:00 in the rec room at Hope. Dessert will be served.

Tuesday, June 23, Stuart Heights brings dinner to Faith House.

Wednesday, June 24, afternoon movies at Hamilton Place, Night at the Museum: Secret of the Tomb. We'll eat lunch a bit early and leave about noon. Tickets on us, movie snacks on you

Thursday, June 26, Parks & Rec is sponsoring a hike for the Therapeutic Rec Dept. at Greenway Farm at 6:00. This is a hike that all should be able to handle.

Friday, June 27, Nightfall Concert at Miller Park. Opening act: Mountain Creek House Fire—a local duo that plays bluegrass/ country/ Americana. Headliner: Amy LaVere—classic country, gypsy jazz and southern soul.