

Katie: kwalters.hosanna@comcast.net

Susan: srdistefano@comcast.net

Brooke Montague from the H*art Gallery works with the residents on a group art project in honor of Independence Day.

Upcoming activities:

Monday, July 13, HUMC Solo Ladies bring dinner and fun to Hope House.

Friday, July 17, Gospel on the Grass, Red Bank City Park, featuring Kindred Spirits vocal band, 6:00-8:00. Bring a chair or picnic blanket.

Saturday, July 18, Walmart trip, time TBD

I love being a Hosanna community resident. We are not preached to, yelled at, or given direct orders of how to act better in public. We are given respect consistently, which helps us to always remain appropriate around others. Sometimes, we are given instructions without a word ever being spoken. Here is a convincing example: Almost all of us have grown up seeing photos or articles posted on the refrigerator. It must be important if it is placed where everyone can see, right? Well, that's definitely the case at Hosanna. I am gladly going to share what has been posted on the door of the Faith House refrigerator. Every time we get a drink, a meal, or snack, we have this reminder to look at.

The best day of your life is the one on which you decide your life is your own: No apologies or excuses; No one to lean on, rely on, or blame. The gift is yours—it is an amazing journey— and you alone are responsible for the quality of it. This is the day your life really begins.

Connor's Corner

Bob Moawad

Pretty direct and convincing, huh?

ECR