Connor's Corner In my time preparing a sermon entitled "Humble and Kind", I will not present anywhere near my entire lesson, but I feel comfortable expressing a few thoughts to you, my devoted readers. Let me begin with this belief: The conditions of receiving God's gift of life are fair, just, and reasonable. We are not required to do some grievous thing in order to gain the forgiveness of sin. In fact, we need not make long and wearisome pilgrimages to help our souls speed up hope for eternal life. There are many verses, 32 at my count, that relate the way to obtain harmony with God. It involves keeping faith in Him and remaining humble and kind. I don't think it can be any clearer that what I read every meal at Hosanna Community. James 4:10 states, "Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord and He shall lift you up."

Words to ponder: And forget not that the earth delights to feel your bare feet and the winds long to play with your hair.
