Today, I don't have direct scripture related readings from my priest friend and mentor, Father Quinn Parman, but with his positive ministry at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, I'd like to share a biblical theme he has passed on that I feel is important for all my friends and readers. Simply put: Accept the truth— It is God's job, responsibility, and choice to make decisions and limitations with people's lives. So let's all try not to evaluate or judge people by those with a "scarred past" as if we know their future. Understand: People learn. People change. People move on.

Remember: It is HIS decision alone that determines where you'll spend your eternal rest.

This year's annual SHINE Prom was held in the Westin and the theme was "The 80s". The residents had a blast! Thank you to all that made this night happen!!
