Thursday, May 24 Housemeeting! Both houses will meet at Hope House. Time: TBA

The recent CABIA Fundraiser was a wonderful event, highlighting the "Unmasking Brain Injury" masks that the residents and other TBI survivors made.

Life get's difficult. We all have our different struggles. The Bible offers us encouragement for when things get tough. In Proverbs 21:21 we find words to help us navigate through confusing life: "Whoever pursues righteousness and kindness will find life, righteousness, and honor." Those are reassuring words for us all! They let us know for a fact that if we keep on being kind to one another, and treating others rightly, in the end it will all work out. It may take longer than we'd like but the end result is promised to those who stick it out all the way through. Nobody's perfect. We all know that. But simply helping others out around the house and occasionally listening to others goes a million miles. Our littlest attempts to be kind and patient with those around us can easily make or break someones whole day. We all know that. Please let this 'micro-blurb' Article serve as an encouragement for your life, and as a possible helpful idea to practice towards others. Because with the patience and persistence we have towards others both spoken and unspoken, we're promised a guarantee of blessed life, righteousness, and honor! May The Lord bless you throughout this coming week. Your friend, Lee
