

WEEKLY ACTIVITIES

Wednesday, Nov. 6: Weather permitting, let's get some fresh air and hit the Guild-Hardy Hiking Trail. We'll leave after lunch.

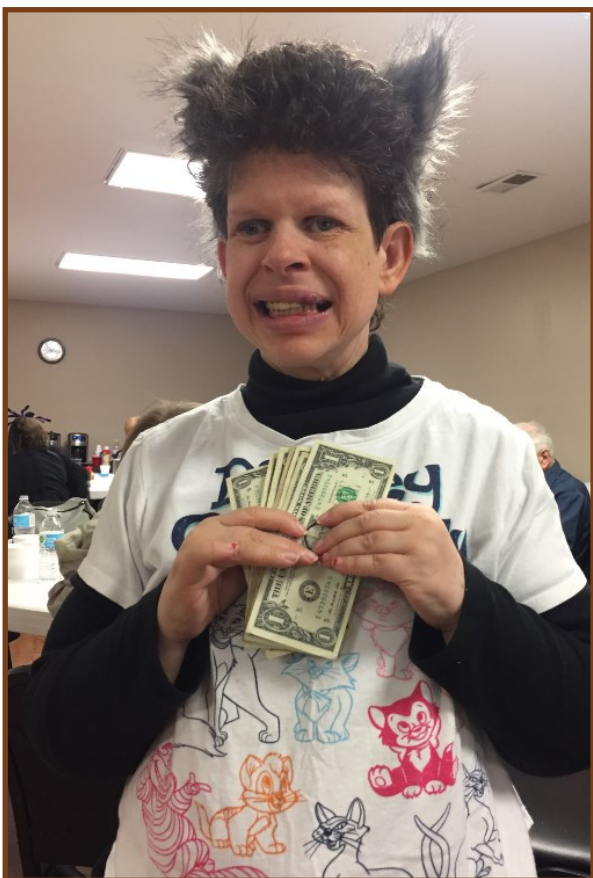

Friday, Nov. 8: Ed Colucci visits Faith House for dinner.

Saturday, Nov. 9: WalMart trip after lunch.

The Guild-Hardy Trail was established in 1995. It was once an abandoned railway, but it is now a five-mile woodsy trail with views of downtown Chattanooga and the Tennessee River. The trail includes a number of historic sites, among them Craven's House featured during the Civil War and Point Park, both part of the National Park Service.

It is a flat and easy trail for hiking and has benches and rocks along the way for resting.

Halloween night was a scary good time at the Soddy Daisy Jamboree Halloween party. Tina, Orlando, Keller and Connor enjoyed chili, hot dogs with all the fixin's and some toe-tapping fun music. Tina was the night's big winner, landing a prize for her "Disney Cat Lady" costume.
