As we enter the Christmas season, along with the celebration of the birth of the Son of our Lord, Jesus Christ, let's remember a few important issues.

First, let's pay attention to the Bible. Job 5:9 reminds us that Jesus is a great Saviour. The verse reads: "He performs wonders that cannot be fathomed, miracles that cannot be counted." Admittedly, His love continues to amaze us, and I want you to focus on the goal He focused on while on earth.

In addition to always bringing/mentioning "peace" in everything He does, He is committed to reminding us of the importance of loving others in all that we do. I'm pretty sure that all of you, my readers, are familiar with the Biblical instructions: "Do unto others as you've had done to you."

Well, regardless if this is a reiteration, but pay attention to Luke 6:31. It states: "And as you wish that man would do to you, do so to them." Mark 12:31 helps reassure the fact that God loves you, others and me as well, exactly as we are. It boldly demands: "Love your neighbor as yourself."

I hope you are paying attention to the importance of making sure to use Godly love in all your actions with others because, my friends, my advice for all of you couldn't be more direct than 1 Peter 4:8. It reads, and I want us all to take this very seriously: "Love one another as if your life depended on it." Amen.

Orlando, Keller, Michael, Sherolyn, Carrie, Connor and Christina enjoyed some Christmas cheer at the CABIA holiday dinner. A gift exchange, along with food, fellowship and of course, fun were a highlight of the evening. Looks like elves were in abundance, joined by a reindeer or two. Many thanks to Lisa Morgan, CABIA Executive Director, for pulling together the event.
