Today's message comes from the Gospels of Luke and the letters of Paul to the Ephesians in the New Testament of the Bible. The Book of Luke, Ch. 11, tells us of Jesus' teaching on prayer, Jesus and Beelzabul, the return of the evil spirit, the demand for a miracle, the light of the body and a claim of terrible Pharisees as well as teachers of the law. It also included a suggestion to find true happiness.

When Jesus was speaking to a large crowd, a woman spoke out loudly, saying to Jesus: "How happy is the woman who bore you and nursed you!" I want you to remember Jesus' amazing response. With no hesitation, He said: "Rather, how happy are those who hear the word of God and obey it." Keeping this in mind, I urge you to place special attention to Paul's letter to the Ephesians. Ch. 4, vs. 2 is concise, direct, and when properly completed, it helps you to become more confident in God's blessings. It reads: "Be humble, gentle and patient always. Show your love by being helpful to one another."

I strongly believe if we could be more encouraging, kinder, more supportive, and less selfish on a regular basis while reminding each other of God's unending love, along with His promise of redemption and eternal life for believers in His hope, we will find true peace and happiness.

It's an appropriate suggestion. Just try it!

Mardi Gras ("Fat Tuesday") at Faith House included all the trimmings: beads, masks and sweet treats. Thanks, Stuart Heights Baptist Church, for joining the fun! Also known as Shrove Tuesday, it was traditionally a time to gorge & get rid of foods like butter, eggs & milk.
