Connor's

Corner

To be perfectly honest, it's a little annoying to hear people say, "Yeah ... I am supposed to 'do unto others as I've had done unto myself'" with no true heart. It is frequently hard to understand the actions and intentions of others. I recommend paying attention to the instruction of the Bible. Repeatedly, the Bible tells us to do what is good for each other and everyone else. I want you to take a close look at and try hard to follow Colossians 3:23. This passage states, "Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgives you."

I feel if we just follow this advice, we will be just fine.

And this also from Connor, as found on the Faith House refrigerator door:

Regardless if you know this, I feel this is worth repeating:

What is the difference between a unicorn and a carrot?

One is a funny beast - and the other is a bunny feast!
