It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas
Around Hosanna Community!

I'll readily admit that my Sunday morning habit, while being in lockdown at Hosanna, is to watch church TV. This is my effort to give God some weekly time to better understand His word. Admittedly, I've started to admire Jentezen Franklin, James Merritt and Charles Stanley, but to be perfectly honest, I gain the most spiritual guidance from Grace Way Baptist in Cleveland, Tennessee. I'd like to focus on last week's direct and simple message. It was to follow God's advice by not simply knowing and listening to what is right, but being a "doer of the Word" needs to be our goal. When we all are little, we are taught how to safely arrive where we are going: Stop. Look. Listen. Move forward.

Don't ever say or use the excuse: "I've got a real bad temper." No, you don't! You've got a bad hearing problem. You aren't listening to God. He doesn't preach or want us to be mad at anything. He has no desire for us to deceive others. His Word is a blessed escape from our evil, perverted world. If/When we listen to God and are careful to watch our mouths when doing what He says, we will become peace-makers and problem-solvers who are willing to help others.

Stop. Look. Listen. God sent his precious Son to Earth in a loving manner which offers eternal life for all believers. Does that make you mad? Well, it makes me eager to thank Him everyday, quarantined or not. Amen.
