

WEEKLY ACTIVITIES

Mon., Dec 14: 10:00 a.m., Yoga and Stretching
2:00 p.m., Gingerbread Castle Decorating

Tues., Dec. 15: 10:00 a.m., Low Impact Aerobics
2:00 p.m., Christmas Craft

After dinner, drive around & check out Christmas lights!!

Wed., Dec. 16: 10:00 a.m., Dance Chair Yoga
2:00 p.m., Christmas baking

Restaurant Dine-In for Dinner!

Thur., Dec. 17: 10:00 a.m., Working with Weights
2:00 p.m., Christmas cooking

Friday, Dec. 18: 10:00 a.m., Walk-a-Mile Challenge
2:00 p.m., Advent Tea & Christmas Karaoke!

There is nothing we feel is incredible or wonderful and nothing that we anticipate more than celebrating Christmas. We try to remember the true reason for the season, and I feel the holiday is more enjoyable and meaningful when Christ, not the gifts you receive, is the focus of your celebration. I'd like help you to do that by giving you a non-Santa, Biblical breakdown of the real reason for the season. Here is an acrostic definition of this most wonderful time of the year:

Connor's

Corner

Christ's Heavenly Redemption
Invitation Solidified Through
Mercy After Sinning

Please understand that although the first Christmas occurred many years ago, its intention is and was to direct your future.

Building our village. Thanks, David DiStefano, for cutting out the houses. It takes a village & we love it!

Baking cookies for the Advent Tea. They turned out 'picture perfect'!

Getting set to watch "The Grinch Musical" & MORE food! Grinch doesn't have a chance around Hosanna!

