Today, in keeping with my lifelong habit of filling my day by offering a God-given blessing of prayer, I'm not about to ask for a blessing, favor or miracle before I first give some thanks for the continued care you and I have received. Now, if need be, and I've done this before, I could quote a plethora of scripture to absolutely convince you of a lesson. I feel our One and Only Creator deserves our ongoing thanks and so I have a short prayer I believe is worth repeating and is very appropriate for those who are reading this newsletter:

"Our Heavenly Father, we thank You for helping us remember we were made in Your image, guiding us to be positively willing to help and show love for others. We are appreciative of the incredible amount of care and kindness received from various churches and loving Hosanna Community Board Members.

Thank you, Lord, for your heavenly guidance.
