... Muchas Gracias, Amigo's/East Ridge!

Admittedly, Easter presents an appropriate time to recognize the Lord's precious gift of life to man and woman. In doing so, we realize that He has a definite plan for us. To begin with, after giving His grace with the miracles of both pregnancy and childbirth, HE gives heavenly help to allow the sincere love you share through life's ups and downs as a loving mother. No one understands how to accept, dismiss and/or deal with pain as does a mother. Mothers of Hosanna Community residents certainly prove that absolutely nothing compares to the sincere love of the woman who put you on this earth. So, today, it is not my intent to celebrate your birth, ladies, but to thank you as blessed loving mothers by wishing you a well-earned:
