Can you believe it?? Fall will be here next week, Sept. 22! There's a belief that "as many falling leaves as can be caught in the hand in autumn, so many happy months will follow." So get outside & catch a few leaves!

As you read today's message, I want you to be honest with yourself. I know that it may be difficult to keep your attention focused on my writing. It is no secret that our minds often wander. How does God deal with this reality? He died a criminal's death on a cross to show unfailing Love. His acceptance of our imperfections can/will never be taken away, and He does know how truly difficult it is for His children to try and control our thoughts. Certainly He wants our thinking to be directed to Him. He wants us to do as His word tells us in Philippians 4:8:

"Whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable - if anything is excellent or praiseworthy - think about such things."

In all our lives, we need to ponder these things not simply to fight evil and negative thoughts, but in a search for salvation, know He has assured us the peace of His presence.
