CARTA Care-A-Van driver, also known as Pastor Greg Bibbs, often has me give him my "Word of the Day." I truly take his request seriously and look forward to hearing, "Good God Almighty, that's a good one" after I tell him my thoughts. I am confident when I relate spiritual lessons. I feel you, my reader, can benefit from this:

No - you can't lose when you try to do things God's way. Why? Pay attention: If you do the best/what you can, God will do His best to help you complete it. God has said: "Do not fear. I am with you ... Don't anxiously look at anything ... I will teach ... I will watch." God helps us decide to pray. He helps us to personally understand the Word of God written over 2000 years ago. He comforts us in the time of earthly death and pain. He does His best to keep us in His image and on the right path. Let's always remember: He deals with sin. If you confess yours to Him and trust Him to forgive you, eternal life is yours. Accept it. It is not something to be gained.

Take what is given unto you. And be happy!
