I feel it's truly necessary to follow God's will by sharing my belief in the blessing of life given by Jesus and those who turn to Him. I want you to know we all are invited to receive eternal life. As a result, I ask you: please pay attention: Since you are already aware of the miracle of God creating you, your future, and a vision of your defined purpose on earth that supercedes any understanding, do you hope and pray for heavenly guidance? Wait a minute. Let's think about your answer. I'm not finished yet. I think you know that Jesus filled His whole life with prayers. He prayed at meals, after times of healing, at moments of question and fear and at times of drastic decisions, like the Cross. We find ourselves often uncertain, but we can find comfort by following His consistency and faith in prayer. Jesus isn't afraid or embarrassed to confess: "I am with you Always, to the end of the age." God's consistent and undeniable love is so inspiring. How, I ask, can you deny that earth is blessed with eternal love?
