"In everything, give thanks." Happy Thanksgiving, Hosanna!

Visiting with the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth

I feel it is worth each of us to admit the truth. When you consider life ... "We simply could NOT make it without God." At the same time, it is awfully hard for us to acknowledge and thank God for the good here He has given us in various forms to help in the ups and downs of life.

Connor's

Corner

If you have ever questioned the Bible's intent of teaching us to help take care of each other, I strongly suggest you pay close attention to the words in 1st Thessalonians, Chapter 5, verse 15. It convincingly asserts: "Make sure that nobody pays back wrong for wrong, but always strive to do what is good for each other and everyone else."

In hope that this verse will be uplifting to you, I have one reminder. As we all strive to be at our best, to be honest about our faults and be receivers of eternal forgiveness, love, and mercy, the gift of perfection is found in Him alone. And He offers Himself at all times.
