Close to everyone has a friend or relative we feel certain loves us, and we enjoy hearing their voice, just to assure us they are okay and they still care for us. We all are aware of the need for positive direction and encouragement from others as we go through the difficulties of life. Many of us even question: "What is my real purpose in life?" Some of us seek companionship. Others may seek money, the thrill of power, and often security. Well, Jesus defines our purpose very clearly, and explains we are to complete this mission for the entire time of our lives on Earth. He says we are all called to "Love one another as I have loved you." God's love is pure, undeniable and freely given. So, I ask you to stop questioning your life, and with a sense of positivity, extend some care to others that provides comfort. Jesus will reward your humble service.
