Mardi Gras King Cake Party (Rachel found the baby!)

Everyone likes to be appreciated. It is a great motivator that gives purpose along with a reason to help others. As a friend and supporter of Hosanna Community, where “friends become family,” surely you know the necessity of building and maintaining caring and trustworthy relationships.

Unfortunately, too often, in our hopes of gaining the approval of others, we end up doing things for the wrong reasons. Admittedly, appreciation can be very powerful, but looking for the approval of others is also an admission of the lack of confidence in our hearts and soul. The result is going down a path of unhappiness with the need of prayer. Hopefully, we all are aware of a need to share respect, marked with true thankfulness, to God for His love shown with many blessings of life.

Prayer, while building a strong relationship with God, will help in gaining God's guidance to follow for heavenly direction. After all, God wants to be appreciated, as well. In the end, it is very important that our desire for His approval is stronger than it is for the approval of others.
