My Hosanna friends, I believe you understand the power of the word: "Always." Let's be honest. There are NOT too many things in the world that last forever, and actually, many things ultimately fail. This being the case, Rev. Quinn Parman of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, in urging everyone to place their hope in nothing and no one but God, emphasizes the "always" of His presence by explaining He was born for us, baptized for us, tempted for us, suffered for us, died for us ... and is alive. He added, "and is in church with us now." Wow! That's always. I can only add - He is waiting as our humble host to comfort us in Heaven - eternally. That is "Always."

I've seen and heard a lot of ministers proclaim the truth of God's forgiveness and the importance of revealing His glory to others. Charles Stanley, James Merritt and Joyce Meyers have certainly strengthened my faith in the reality of our "always" kind of God. Chris Tomlin, who Time magazine declared that about 30 million people sing his music in churches each week, stated, "Even when we are faithless, God is not."

That, my friends, is "Always" to me.
