Yes, my Hosanna friends, life can be a difficult struggle, at times. The pressures, problems, and worries we face often create feelings of discontent, and we simply don't know how/if we can overcome it anymore. Wait a minute. . . Does the Bible deal with this issue? Does it have any suggestions for any relief? The Scripture says, "God will not let you be tempted beyond what you can endure, but He will make a way of escape so that you will be able to bear it."

Notice: God did NOT say that His way of escape would allow you to avoid or run from unbearable issues. He did say you can "bear it." God made us to handle pressure and to "bear" whatever obstacle we may face.

Let's remember that God doesn't make mistakes. He doesn't put you in situations that will defeat you. Whatever you face, He knows you can handle/overcome it. We all have lots of courage, fortitude, hope, and stamina. We need to quit our complaining and whining and start being thankful for the strengths we've been given.
